Technology offer | TOES20250429003

Spanish Zero waste solutions developer company, offers its technology and products, for new clean biogas solutions. Collaboration is offered under r&d and commercial with technical assistance agreements.

Founded as a spinoff company from the Spanish research council, CSIC, the company gathers experienced researchers from the National Metallurgy Research Centre, focused in the circularity (recuperation, reuse, recycling) of different materials on regards of a circular and green transition. The company looks for clean tech partners from the biogas' supply and value chains, willing to collaborate under r&d and/or...
